

Blending travelogue, stand-up, prose poetry & activism, the first book of Facebook posts in the known universe evolves social media into an art form.

Foie gras dog biscuits... snakeskin punk on the Lower East Side...
pizza boys who fall in love in the street...
the most talked-about city on Earth, it turns out, overflows with untold stories.

isbn 978-1-921950-00-1
cathoeljorss.com/newyork

Poet & jazz musician Cathoel Jorss devours the Big Apple and bites down on its core. These frank & immediate updates will make you want to start planning your next trip... even if you're living in Queens.

"You Australians are always so friendly. In New York we hate each other, we're like, get out of my face, because there's too much of us."